Duties of Board Members of East Valley Children's Theatre

East Valley Children's Theatre is an all-volunteer theatre with a working board of directors. Board members are expected to attend monthly meetings of the board and perform the following duties:

1. Become a Patron member of EVCT by donating at least a $100.00 membership fee – this covers your D & O Insurance
Additional membership fee is accepted and encouraged
2. Attend productions and programs of the theatre and act as an advocate for the theatre as well as helping with events during the season.
3. Help with production duties for each of the four shows during the season.
4. Help at other theatre activities during the year.
5. Work on at least one project during the year, i.e., fundraising, special events, grant writing, recruitment of new board members
6. Promote EVCT and its programs in the community and whenever possible
7. Attend the annual gala and invite additional guests.

East Valley Children's Theatre relies on its board for financial, marketing, fund raising, planning, and operations. It's the responsibility of the board to ensure that the organization remains fiscally sound. EVCT benefits from a board of 12 to 15 people, as the work is more easily dispersed amongst the members.
